Celebrate Community and Culture at Tulare County Museum's Free Community Event!

Visalia, CA – March 26, 2025 – Tulare County Museum is thrilled to invite the public to our eighth annual Museum Jamboree; a vibrant, family-friendly community event celebrating art, culture, and togetherness. This free event will take place on Saturday, April 12 from 10:00 AM to 3:00 PM at the Tulare County Museum in Mooney Grove Park, offering an exciting day of performances, interactive experiences, and delicious local eats.

Attendees can enjoy live music and cultural performances throughout the day, showcasing diverse talent from our community. Food lovers can indulge in a variety of delicious options from some of the area's best food trucks, featuring a variety of sweet and savory flavors. In addition, interactive booths will provide hands-on activities for guests of all ages, including art activities, history exhibits, and engaging demonstrations.

"We're excited to bring people together to celebrate the creativity and community of Tulare County," said Amy King-Sunderson, museum curator. "This event is an opportunity for the Tulare County Museum to raise awareness of the museum and our community partners through a fun and enriching experience."

Admission to the Tulare County Museum is regularly free of charge, however, Mooney Grove Park will be charging $6.00 per vehicle to enter the park. Don't miss this chance to connect with the community and experience a dynamic day at the Museum Jamboree!
